John:

A brief note to thank you for your very kind invitation to attend the Intelligence and Electronic Warfare System Program Review. I'm not sure I contributed as much as I would have liked but it was a very rewarding experience for me and I did indeed have the pleasure of learning. It was also a useful opportunity to meet many of the key players in the military intelligence world and for that I am also grateful. While the problems remain immense, it is rather comforting to know we have such dedicated, experienced and talented people primed to solve them.

I am anxious to follow up on this program to ensure that our national intelligence does its utmost to help the military commanders satisfy their intelligence needs as much as possible. This obviously will take the best cooperation among all U.S. entities.

Again, many thanks. You have my best wishes for continued good luck.

Regards

John N. McMahon
